Hi:

Greetings, from balmy Rhode Island! The month ended with three days in New York City at the Photo Plus trade show where The Wells Point team met with manufacturers, journalists and old friends. We were very well received and things are looking good in terms of the growth and evolution of The Wells Point.

In terms of new podcasts, In October, I posted "Seeing the light and capturing the shadows," in which I take the viewer on location with me as I photograph the play of light and shadow early in the morning at the Tucson rodeo. I also posted "A lesson in seeing and working a situation," in which I explore the many different ways you can photograph one subject.

The third article that I wrote for the on-line resource, Olympus Visionage, was just posted. It is explore how to use the fold out live-view swivel screens. It can be seen at:
http://www.pdonline.com/pdn/cp/olympus/technology/article\_display.jsp?vnu\_content\_id=1004025130 Here is an image I made recently in Greece using that technology:

In late November, an exhibition of my work from India opens in Providence, R.I. The show, at the Chazan gallery, runs from November 19 to December 9, 2009. There will be a reception on Thursday, November 19, from 5 – 7 p.m. You can read more at <http://www.chazangallery.org/Upcoming%20Show.htm>

I am looking forward to presenting my work as part of the APA|NY Image Makers Lecture Series at the SoHo Apple store at 103 Prince St at Mercer on Monday, November 9, 2009. You can read more about that at: <http://www.apanational.com/i4a/pages/index.cfm?pageid=3294> They are having a reception afterward at The Cupping Room, 359 W. Broadway (between Broome and Grand.)

An excellent video about the work of Annu Palakunnathu Matthew, my wife, was recently posted and can be seen by clicking through where it says <<to see video >> at: <http://www.annumatthew.com/published%20articles/index.html>

I am pleased to say that my class photographing the Tucson Rodeo is filling up fast. There is a discount on the last remaining slots if you sign up before December 1, 2009 for the class, February 21 to 24, 2010. Read more at: <http://www.davidhwells.com/Rodeo/index.html> Here is a photo from last year's workshop:
