DAVID | H | WELLS | photography

Hi:

If I told you about an inexpensive photography workshop with warm weather, good pictures and great instruction, would that get your attention? I hope so.

If you are anywhere near Tucson, Arizona in late February, join me to photograph the Tucson Rode, Feb 23-25, 2009.

The workshop is built on the simple but effective strategy of photographing a lot, (with my guidance) and then critiquing that work immediately.

If you want to learn more, go to: www.davidhwells.com/Rodeo/index.html

Here are a couple of images from my previous shoots at the rodeo.

If you want a reminder of me and my teaching style, look at my new web site, "the Wells Point" at <http://www.thewellspoint.com>! The site has free enhanced podcasts and information for aspiring and accomplished photographers designed to stimulate your creativity and improve your craftsmanship.

As you may remember, I am a freelance photographer and photo-educator, in Providence, Rhode Island, specializing in intercultural communications and the use of light and shadow to enhance my visual narratives. I have received two Fulbright fellowships as well as grants from Nikon/N.P.P.A. and have taught workshops at the Santa Fe Photo Workshops, International Center for Photography in NYC and at the Maine Photographic Workshops.

Look over the information on the link to the class information and let me know if you are interested. Please feel free to pass this on to other photographer you know who might be interested. Best wishes for 2009!!
